The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi) Sunday, June 3rd, 2018

The feast of Corpus Christi is a remembrance of Holy Thursday, when Christ instituted the Eucharist at the Last Supper. It is a feast that honours the Body and Blood of Christ and promotes adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The feast is celebrated in June on the first Sunday after the octave of the Trinity. After mass, the priest places the Blessed Sacrament in the monstrance and a Eucharistic procession is held.

How strange and wonderful is the Catholic Faith! The Buddha offers his wise teaching to his followers. Muhammad presents to his devotees a revelation that was given to him. Confucius passes on to his adepts and intricate moral system that he had developed. Moses comes down the mountain bearing a Law that he had received from on high.

But Jesus presents, offers, bears, and passes on...his very self. On the night before he suffered, he gathered at the Passover table with his Twelve Apostles. Taking bread in his hands, he said, This is my body, and lifting the cup, said, This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. He gave them, not a teaching, a discipline, or a spiritual insight, but his substance. And this is why the Christian Faith is not a matter, primarily, of learning or walking a religious path, but of eating and drinking Jesus' Body and Blood. But whereas, in the ordinary course of things, food and drink are assimilated by the one who consumes them, in this unique case the one who consumes is assimilated by what he or she consumes.

From this Eucharistic fact, the Church Fathers derived the splendid teaching or theiosis or deification. We disciples do not just follow Jesus; we became Jesus, participants through grace of what he is by nature, adopted sons and daughters in the Son. This doctrine, both poetically evocative and metaphysically exact, is the object of our bedazzled contemplation on this Solemnity of the Lord's Body and Blood.
